CONSTIPATION

And Sour Stomach Caused This
Lady Much Suffering. Black-
Draught Relieved.

Meadowville, Ky.—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable. I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills. They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would gripe me and afterwards it seemed I was more constipated than before. I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and not bad to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape."

I cannot say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative one can use. Theodor's Black-Draught has for many years been found of great value in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy to take, gentle and reliable in its action, leaving no bad after-effects. It has won the praise of thousands of people who have used it. NC-135

"IN THE DAY'S NEWS."

Jonas Lie, who reaches his fortieth birthday today, occupies a high place among the younger American artists. His pictures are essentially American, the material having been drawn mainly from New York and its vicinity. He has painted the workaday world of the waterfront, the glory of Brooklyn Bridge, the beauty of the Palisades, and the New York skyscrapers. The artist is a native of Norway and belongs to a Norwegian family noted for genius in one form or another. His paternal uncle, after whom he was named, was one of the world's supreme exponents of the short story. His aunts were famed as musicians, while various other relatives for generations had contributed to the cultural history of their country. Having lost his father in early youth, Jonas Lie came to the United States with his mother, who was of American birth. While still a student at the Academy of Design in New York he sent a canvas, "The Gray Day," to the jury. The picture was accepted, well hung, and from thence dates Jonas Lie's regular appearance in American art circles.

MAYSVILLE EVIDENCE FOR MAYSVILLE PEOPLE

The Statement of Maysville Residents Are Surely More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers.

Home testimony is real proof. Public statements of Maysville people carry real weight. What a friend or neighbor says compels respect. The word of one whose home is far away invites your doubt. Here's a Maysville man's statement. And it's for Maysville people's benefit.

Such evidence is convincing. That's the kind of proof that backs Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor! Henry S. Gallenstein, blacksmith, 124 W. Third St., Maysville, says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had pains through my back. Doan's Kidney Pills put an entire stop to the pains and my kidneys became well." RESULTS THAT REMAIN Over four years later, Mr. Gallenstein said: "I haven't had any need of a kidney medicine since I last recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. The benefit they gave me has been permanent." Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Gallenstein had.
